STRIP FOR A CAUSE! WOMEN IN HORROR CLOTHING DRIVE

Horror fans are invited to join several scream queens and entertainment celebrities at Burbank, CA's horror store Dark Delicacies for a meet-and-greet and a little giving back to the community. Read on for the details...

The Women in Horror Clothing Drive benefits Covenant House and takes place Saturday, February 12 at Dark Delicacies (3512 W. Magnolia Blvd.) from 2 to 6 p.m. PST, hosted by Dai Green (pictured above) and Dark Del owners Sue and Del Howison. The indie-horror starlets who will be attending include Elissa Dowling, Victoria DeMare, Monique Parent, Rachel Grubb, Eileen Dietz, Michelle Tomlinson, Mo Whelan, Reyna Young, Melissa Krinsky, Brooke Lewis and Tara Cardinal (pictured right), among others.

Ad Choices

The Clothing Drive (a.k.a. Strip for a Cause) hosted by Cardinal benefits the LA chapter of Covenant House, representatives of which will be on hand to collect donations. Covenant House California is a non-profit agency whose mission is to reach out to at-risk homeless youth living on the streets and offer them opportunities to turn their lives around, and your donations are tax-deductible (Cardinal will be personally autographing your tax donation receipts). Additionally, several of the scream queens are offering discounts on their merchandise for sale to anyone who donates new or gently used clothing. Cardinal will also be offering autographed copies of her film DELIVERY for $5 to anyone who donates. Items specifically requested by Covenant House are as follows:

Gift certificates—all kinds: food stores, clothing stores, restaurants, movie stores, bookstores, etc.

Everyday essentials (large and plus sizes needed!)—underwear, socks, gently used bras, T-shirts

Clothing and accessories (large and plus sizes needed!)—professional and casual clothing appropriate for older teens and young adults: shoes, ties, belts, etc.

Personal items—iPods, Walkmans, watches, jewelry, cologne, perfume, bath and body gift packs, sunglasses, batteries (all sizes)

Dark Delicacies is also hosting a food drive, seeking non-perishable items to feed the homeless and hungry in LA. You can visit the the store's official website for more info.
